ANALOG MOS INTEGRATED CIRCUITS FOR SIGNAL PROCESSING

INTERNATIONAL EDITION
PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE PURCHASING

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 An ADD/SUBTRACT logic circuit is shown below. It performs the ADD operation for $P = 0$, and SUBTRACT for $P = 1$.
- (a) Draw an equivalent CMOS logic diagram by noting that most CMOS gates, except for transmission gate and XOR, are inverting. For example, AND gate is implemented with NAND followed by an inverter.
 - (b) By using the gate array platform given on page 47, implement the CMOS circuit as compactly as possible with the aspect ratio, which is the ratio of vertical dimension to horizontal dimension, as close to 1 as possible.

SOLUTION:

- (b) The CMOS circuit implementation using the gate array platform:

Right to Anti-Discrimination: We will not discriminate against you for exercising your rights set forth under this paragraph. We have collected such personal information from the following categories of sources: Download Chart. ADI may terminate or suspend your User Account, or change the functionality of your User Account at any time, for any reason, including any failure by you to regularly use the ADI Site, or to update or complete your User Account information, or any misuse of your password or the User Account. Do Not Track: We may, from time to time, collect information about your online activities, over time and across different sites and applications. Personal Information Processor: ADI Investment Co., Ltd., with its registered address at Room 1107, 11th Floor (the actual floor is 10th Floor), No. 222 Hubin Road, Huangpu District, Shanghai, China ("ADI China" or "us") is the personal information processor of your personal information, unless otherwise stated. This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you. ADI has no obligation to monitor the User Forums that may appear on the ADI Site. Further: Subject to legal requirements, we may share your information as required by law or in the interest of protecting or exercising our or others' legal rights, e.g., without limitation, in connection with requests from law enforcement officials (such as supervisory authorities, investigative authorities or other governmental bodies) and in connection with court proceedings. The ADI Group includes various Maxim Integrated entities. Changes To Terms Of Use Any action on any claim against ADI must be brought by you within one (1) year following the date the claim first accrued, or shall be deemed waived. Except as explicitly provided herein, the ADI Information may not be reproduced, published, adapted, modified, displayed, distributed or sold in any manner, in any form or media, without the prior written permission of ADI. Technical Data includes internet protocol (IP) address, your login data, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform and other technology on the devices you use to access this website. Rights: Chinese residents have the following rights under the China Data Protection Laws. Erasure: You are entitled to ask us to delete or remove personal data in certain circumstances. User Forums The ADI Site contains several interactive areas where users can communicate with other users and contribute information ("User Forums"). We will confirm receipt of, and respond to your requests as soon as possible, and in conformance with all applicable law. We shared such personal information with the following categories of third parties: Download Chart. You may also designate an authorized agent to submit a request on your behalf. Right of Correction: You are entitled to request that any incomplete or inaccurate personal information we hold about you is corrected. Additionally, if a decision made upon automated decision-making would have a material impact on your rights and interests, you have the right to require us to explain the matter and to object the decision made solely upon automated decision-making. Where you opt out of receiving marketing messages, this will not apply to personal data provided to us as a result of a product/service purchase, warranty registration, product/service experience or other transactions. Further, to the extent permitted by applicable law, we may combine the personal data created by us in the course of your use of our Site with the personal data you provided to us. Details of the entities making up the ADI Group are available here. We will respond to your exercise of right request within one month, but have the right to extend this period to two months. We store your personal data in ADI data centers in United States and other locations where ADI operates, including Ireland, Singapore and the Philippines. Additionally, where necessary, we will apply for the security assessment conducted by the competent authority; get necessary certification; or sign the standard contract with the data recipient. Object: Where we are processing your personal data based on our legitimate interest, you may object to processing on this ground. There are certain exceptions where we may refuse a request for erasure, for example, where the personal data is required for compliance with law or in connection with legal claims. You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold ADI, its subsidiaries, employees, directors and officers harmless from and against any and all claims, damages, costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising from or related to such postings or transmissions. Contact Data includes billing address, delivery address, email address and telephone numbers. They will only process your personal data on our instructions, and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality. To submit such a request, please send an e-mail to dataprivacy@analog.com. If your request is clearly unfounded or excessive, we reserve the right to charge a reasonable fee or refuse to comply in such circumstances. You should also safeguard any password and User ID you use to access the Site and notify dataprivacy@analog.com if you suspect that this password or User ID has been compromised. The withdrawal of your consent does not affect the lawfulness of the processing based on your consent before its withdrawal. You may, however, disambiguate certain tracking as discussed in our Cookie Notice. We also recommend that users revisit this Privacy Policy on occasion to learn of any changes. If you – as a person with parental responsibility over the child – notice that your child has provided us with personal data without your approval (for instance by submitting an incorrect age), you may contact us at dataprivacy@analog.com. Notice at Collection: To learn more about the categories of personal information we have collected about California residents in the 12 months preceding the date this Privacy Policy was last updated, including the sources of collection and how we may use and share that information, please see the following charts: Download California Personal Information Details ("Chart"). This Privacy Policy consists of a general section and local provisions that apply to users in specific locations. Privacy Your use of the ADI Site is subject to the ADI Privacy Policy, which can be found here. User Accounts and Passwords ADI grants you a personal, revocable right to establish a user account ("User Account") with your contact information, preferences and other information relevant to interacting with ADI and using the ADI Site. Limitation Of Liability In no event shall ADI or its suppliers, agents, licensors or contractors be liable for any special, incidental, punitive, multiple, indirect or consequential damages of any kind, even if ADI has been advised of the possibility of such damages, and regardless of the form of action. Attention Internet Explorer users: Analog.com no longer supports IE 11. We also do not have any actual knowledge of selling the personal information of any California resident who is 16 years or younger. This includes website cookies. However, we may not be able to satisfy your request if: the storage period as proscribed by laws and administrative regulations does not expire; the erasure of personal information is technically unviable; or processing the personal information is necessary to comply with our legal obligations. Please note that third parties with whom we share your personal data for marketing purposes, have their own data privacy policies, which may differ from ours and you would have to contact them separately with respect to opt-out requests. Withdraw your consent: Where you have provided your consent to the processing of your personal data for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. However, if we combine or connect aggregated data with your personal data so that it can directly or indirectly identify you, we treat the combined data as personal data which will be used in accordance with this Privacy Policy. To the extent applicable, we will disclose or share your personal data to /with the following third parties: Party Location Personal data Our Group company(ies) Australia, Austria, Brazil, Canada, China, Denmark, France, Germany, Hong Kong, India, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Mexico, Netherlands, Philippines, Scotland, Serbia, Singapore, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Taiwan, Thailand, Turkey, United Kingdom, and the United States. Removal does not ensure complete or comprehensive removal of the content or information you posted. However, we have put in place reasonable and appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorized way, altered or disclosed. You hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the federal and state courts located in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the applicable service of process. International Transfer: If we share your personal information with our group company(ies) or third parties located outside China, we ensure appropriate safeguards are in place to guarantee the continued protection of your personal information. We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so. ADI may require you to alter the password from time to time and will inform you accordingly. Below we set out your rights in more detail and give information on how you can exercise these. Last reviewed: February 2017 Copyright © 1995-2017 by Analog Devices, Inc. Restriction: You are entitled to ask us to suspend the processing of certain personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it. You agree that we can process your sensitive personal information for the purposes stated in this Privacy Policy and in accordance with its provisions. Our representative in China is Grace Lin who can be contacted at Grace.Lin@analog.com. If we find out that we process personal data of a minor without approval of the person holding parental responsibility over the minor concerned, we will immediately remove the personal data. This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it. If you withdraw our consent, we will no longer be able to provide you with services corresponding to the consent that you withdraw. You will not post on or transmit to the ADI Site any defamatory, libelous, obscene, profane, pornographic, threatening, or unlawful materials or any materials that would constitute or encourage conduct that would be considered a criminal offense or give rise to civil liability, whether under statute, common law or equitable principles, or otherwise violate any law. Notice of Sale: We do not sell the personal information of California residents. ADI has no liability related to any information or other content posted to User Forums and has no liability related to any actions it may take with respect to such information or other content posted to User Forums. See how it works Analog Devices' experts discuss how ADI's connectivity solutions fit into automotive megatrends such as Personalization, Autonomy, Connectivity and Electrification. This means that ADI decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.
